GRESHAM UNION HIGH SCHOOL

GRESHAM, OREGON

FOREWORD

The theme for this year's Munhinotu is based on your school activities and is done in silhouettes by B. J. Gardner.

The enrollment, having increased tremendously during the past year, has necessitated the building of a new addition to our school. Pictures, herein, are to show you the progress. Many new improvements have been made such as the installation of a new fountain and a new public telephone booth in the main hall.

We hope that this book will be a lasting token of your high school days and that you will cherish it always.

MISS ESTHER BARTHOLOMEW

DEDICATION

We the seniors wish to dedicate this 32nd issue of the Munhinotu to Miss Esther Bartholomew, who has given unlimited time and guidance to our class as advisor.

BOARD MEMBERS

School board members are elected by the legal voters of a school district. They are the legal means by which the people delegate and exercise their authority to build and operate a school. Our board consists of five members, no two of which come from any one elementary school district. While they come from separate districts, each conscientiously represents the whole area which this high school serves without particular regard to his own neighborhood. They are: T. L. Andersen, Chairman, Powell Valley District No. 26, Multnomah County; H. G. Mullenhoff, Orient District (Joint) 6; V. H. Sipe, Union District No. 26, Clackamas County; E. G. Larson, Gresham District No. 4; and W. W. Masten, Lynch District No. 28. Mr. George W. Page, Clerk, is appointed by the Board and lives in Gresham.

A wide variety and a large volume of business crosses their table at each of their monthly meetings.

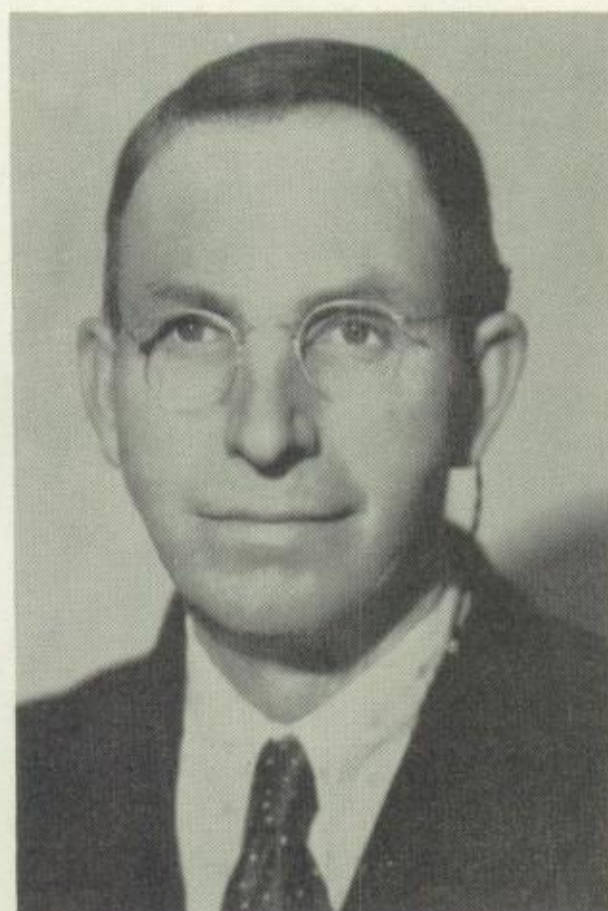

The welfare of the Gresham Union High School student and the value of his educational experience while here are considerations which lie under all the deliberations of our Board of Directors.

SENIOR HISTORY

In 1944 we, the freshman class of Gresham Union High School, humbly entered these halls eager to learn, full of ambitious ideas, and respectful of our superiors.

Our first privilege as students was to elect our class officers. They were as follows: President, Bob Bernick; vice-president, Byron Gardner; secretary, Clarice Fancher; Student Council members, Betty Harris and Bob Miller; Girls' League, Jean Wilson.

Under the capable direction of our freshman class advisor, Mrs. Hiatt, our freshman party, which carried out the theme of the Trolley Song, was a great success.

The year 1945 found us full-fledged sophomores. Our officers were: President, Bob Nottingham; vice-president, Harold Sipe; secretary, Joan DeYoung; Student Council members, Bobby Jo Smithy and Dick Foreman; Girls' League, Helen Benda.

During this year we lost Mrs. Hiatt as our advisor and Mrs. Bartholomew competently took her place. Our main social event was the colorful St. Patrick's Day Party.

The following year we were recognized as upper-classmen, with Miss Bartholomew as our advisor. Our officers this year were the following: President, Charles Robinson; vice-president, Bob Miller; secretary, Erma Gradin; Student Council members, Bob Nottingham and Donna Evans; Girls' League, June Holmes. Our Junior Class Play given in November was "The Goose Hangs High," under the direction of Miss Machen. We sponsored the Basket Ball and the biggest social event of the season, the Junior-Senior Prom. The gym was decorated in pink and green with a large merry-go-round in the center.

As high and mighty seniors we chose for our officers: President, Keith Pullen; vice-president, Carlos Monroe; secretary, Betty Eastman; Student Council members, Helen Benda and Bob Hafner; Girls' League, Mary Jo Stephens.

Our Senior Play, "She Stoops to Conquer," was directed by Mrs. Lord.

As each of us sets forth on our separate paths of life, we should like to thank our faculty and understanding advisors for the knowledge we have gained and the enjoyment we have had during these last four years.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The class of '49, newly clothed in the robe of upperclassmen and with ambition and enthusiasm, had a most successful year under the leadership of Al Coughenour, president; Stanley Roser, vice-president; Anne Marx, secretary, and Phil Luarca, sergeant-at-arms, with Elaine Roll, girl student council member, and Elaine Chambers, girls' league representative.

As actors, they were unexcelled in their production of the comedy, "We Shook the Family Tree," directed by Miss Machen. This year the Juniors were deprived of their opportunity to honor the basketball team with the basketball dance because of the team's participation in the State Basketball Tournament in Eugene. Highlighting the year of school social events was the Junior-Senior Prom.

The class this year has been under the supervision of Mr. Ott, who replaced Miss Casterline during her leave of absence.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshmen entered the portals of G. U. H. S. with the distinction of being the largest class ever to enroll. After surviving initiation by the upper classmen, they elected their class officers: Douglas Irving, president; Duane Wolfe, vice-president; Janet Ambrose, secretary; Tommy Bird, sergeant-at-arms; Cheryl Bjur, girl council member; Shirley Johnson, Girls' League representative.

The first activity of the year was the traditional cleaning of the trophy case. During the course of the year, President Douglas Irving was presented the District Basketball Tournament trophy by Bob Bernick.

With the able assistance of Miss Stoeber, class advisor, the freshman party, "The Carnival," was a huge success. The freshman class has been well represented in the various sports and on the honor role.

COACHES

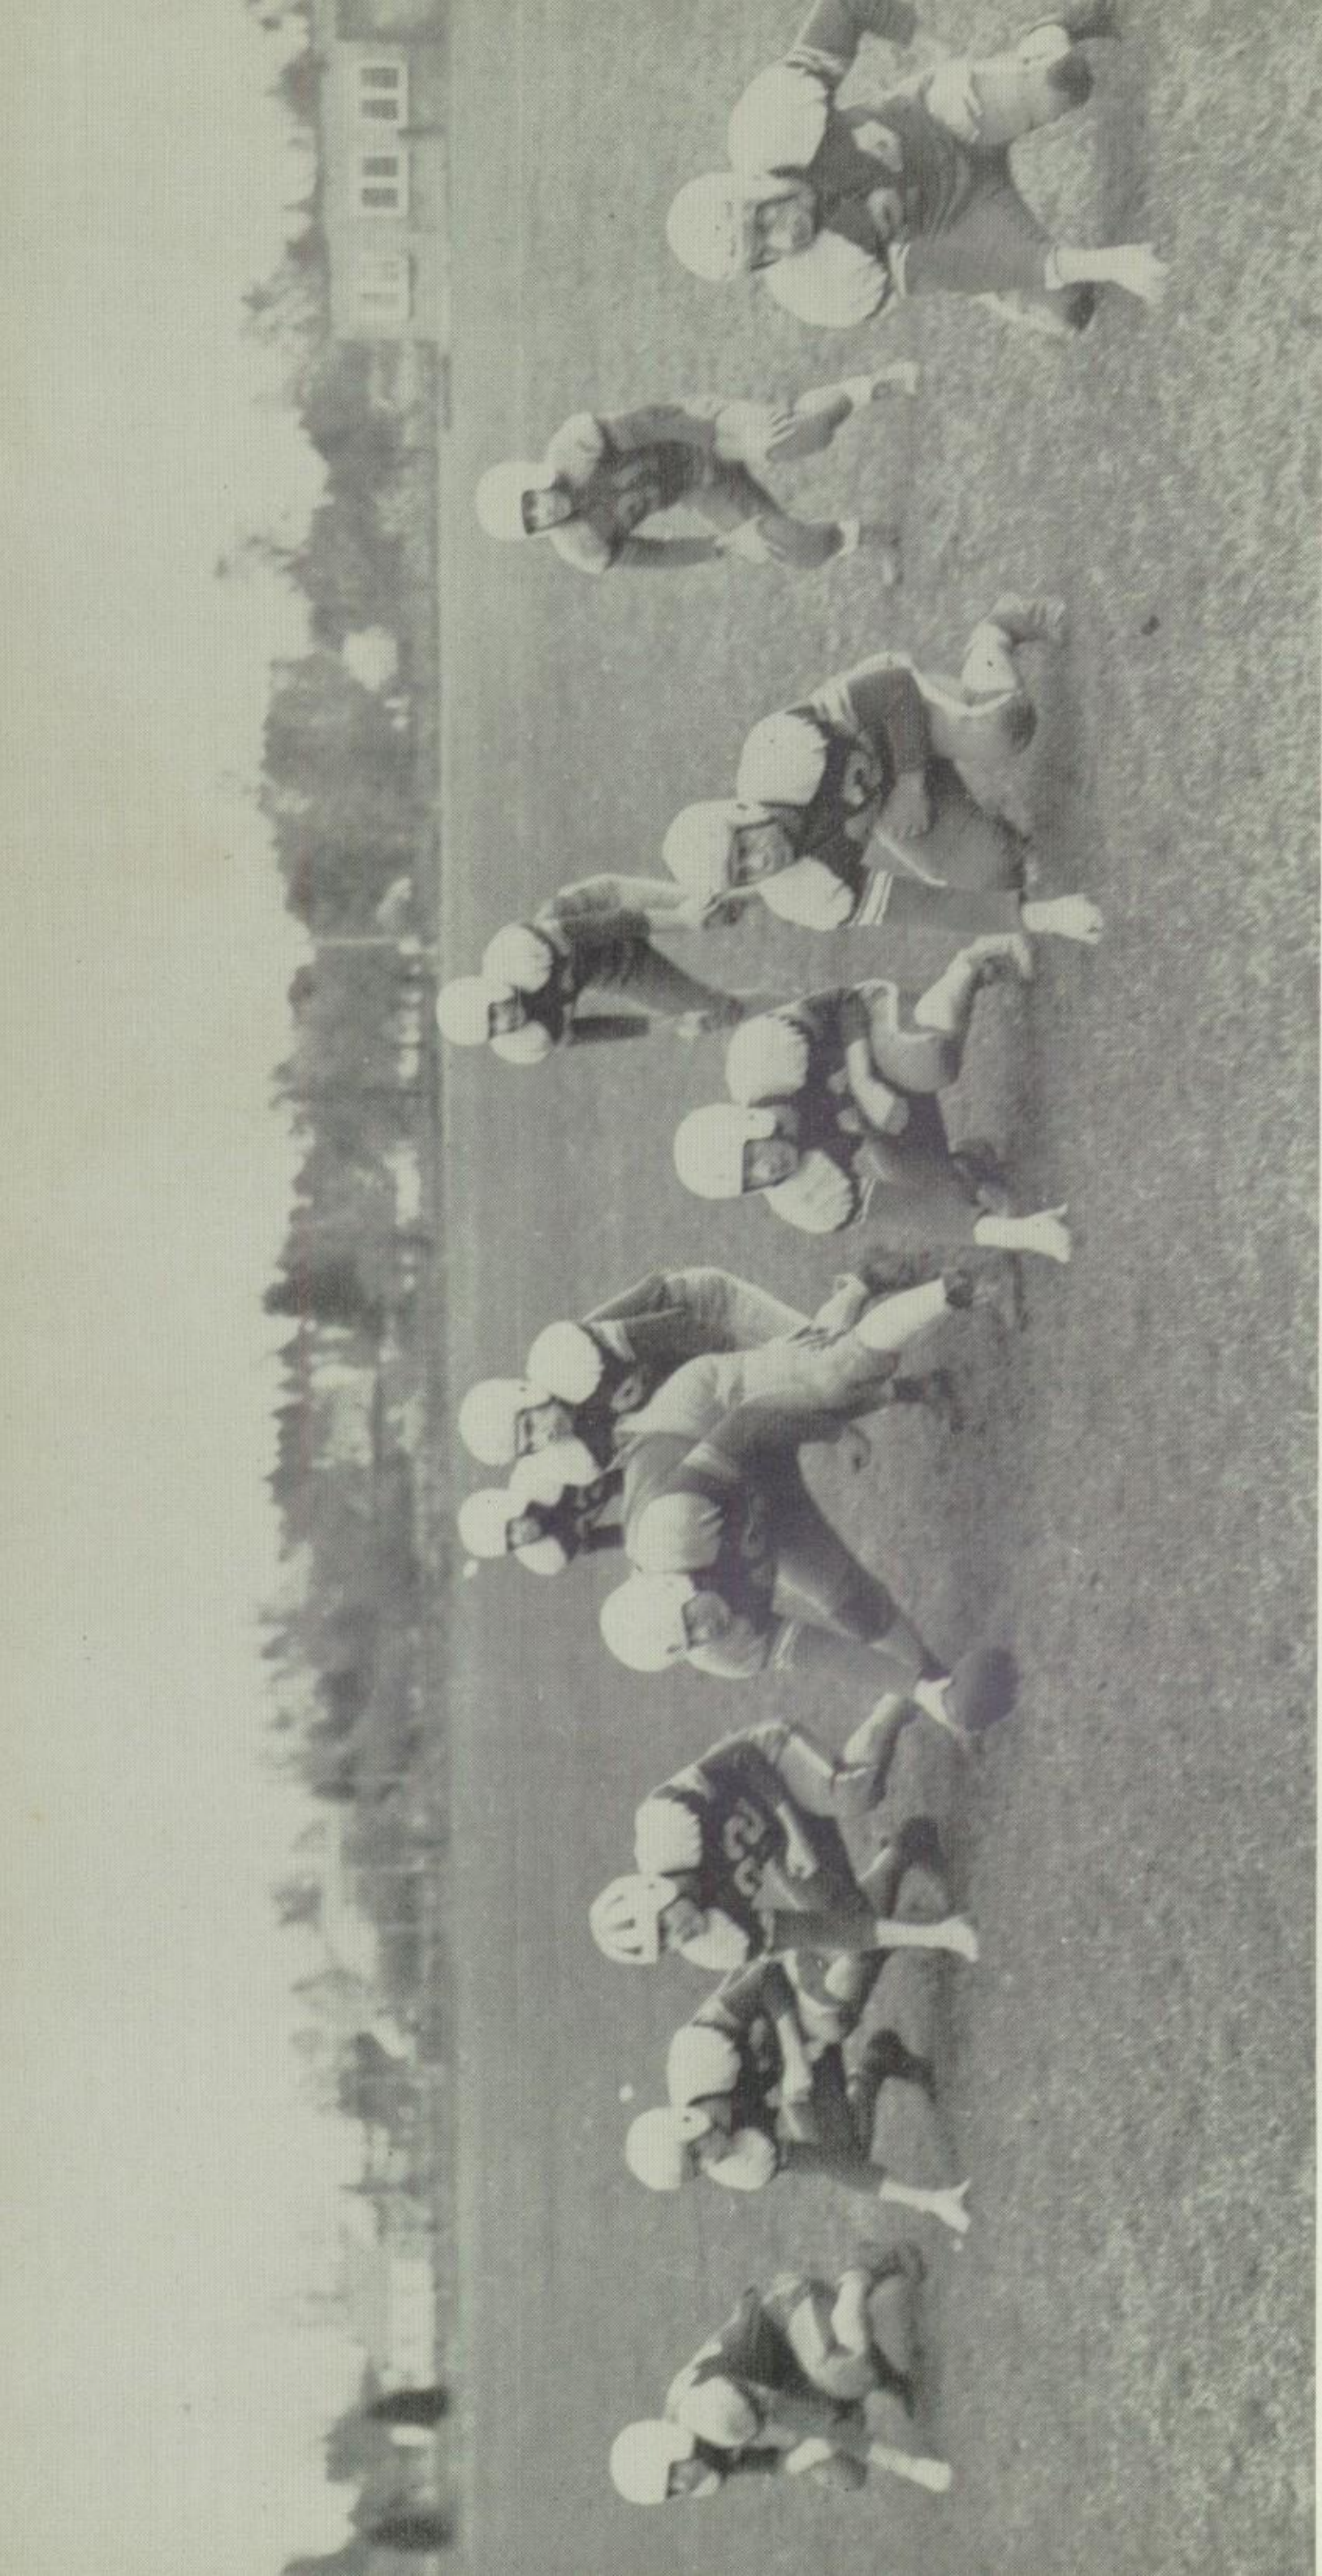

This page is proudly dedicated to the three coaches who together worked out our fine athletic program. Due to their efforts we have had a very successful year in our athletics; our football team was one of the best we have had, and our basketball team won honors by winning the right to play in the state tournament at Eugene. The track and baseball teams have given a very good account of themselves to date.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Starting the season with five lettermen backs and four linemen, Coaches Harry Thompson and Bud Monnes were busy trying to fill the holes for another strong Gopher team. The backs were crippled when Jack Hartman broke his leg during the second week, forcing a reorganization of the backfield.

Through the season the Gophers played spirited ball and gave all opponents a hard battle.

Gresham's future varsity gridmen effectively combined a stiff pattern with a wide-open offense operating off the "T", to record an impressive season, seven victories and no defeats. The team was slow in starting, winning their first three games by one touchdown each, but suddenly caught fire and with Roy Bodine throwing strikes from his quarterback position won their remaining games with ease.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity basketball team enjoyed a successful year by rounding out their season's work with 14 victories against 6 defeats. The highlight of their season's play was a 41 to 23 victory over Portland's Jefferson High School Junior Varsity, who had finished in second place in the Portland league.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The weather man has prevented this year's baseball team from getting underway in pre-season as well as league games, only one game against Franklin High School having been played. Franklin won, 4-2.

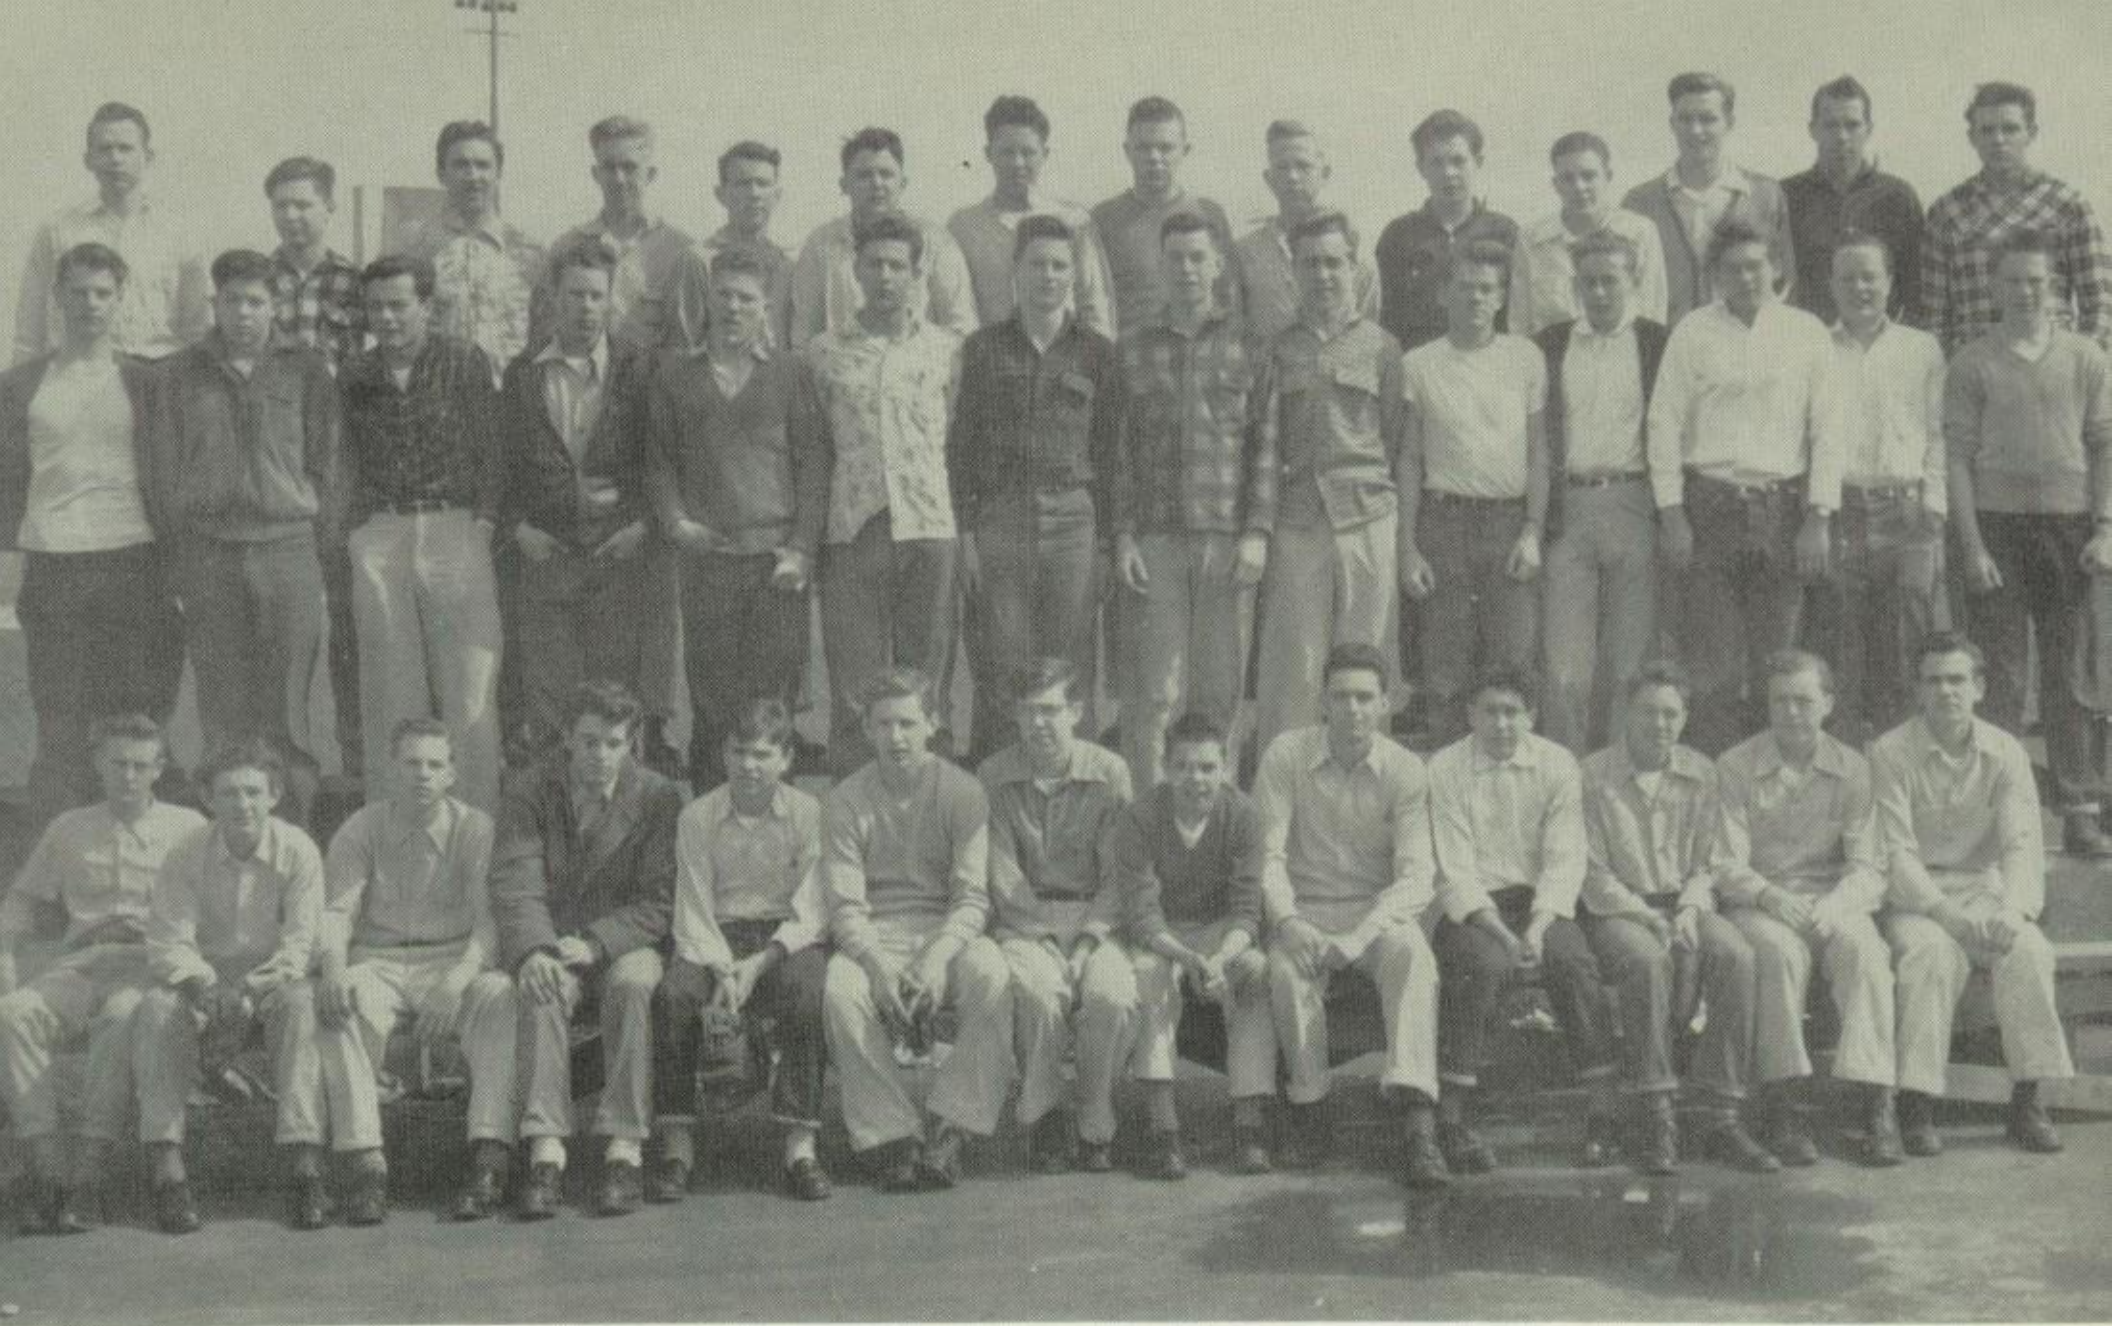

The team will be built around 8 returning lettermen and last year's junior squad. Returning lettermen are: Harold Sipe, Jim Lancaster, Walt Benner, Bob Bernick, H. B. Hawkins, John Bingham, Jack Cooper and Keith Roberts.

FROSH BASKETBALL

Organized late in December, the Frosh hoopsters were an inconspicuous lot this year. With no regular practice times, the team borrowed the floor from the girls often enough to get acquainted. In 11 games these boys established a season's record of 7 won and 4 lost, and the individual performers showed enough improvement to warrant future freshman teams.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

With a turnout of over forty players, the Juniors face a schedule of eight games, two each with Central Catholic, Milwaukie, Corbett and Sandy. Wet weather has made practice almost impossible, so the Juniors still have to prove themselves.

TRACK TEAM

This year's track squad was weakened considerably by graduation of several top pointmakers, but with pole vaulter Jim Holmes, high jumper Bob Chiodo, half miler Joe Brennan and javelin expert Bill White forming a nucleus, the numerous sophomores and juniors on the squad got behind their new coach, Roy Seeborg, to whip into a representative group. In early meets the team lost close decisions to Molalla and Hood River. They then won two triangular meets, once over St. Helens and Hillsboro and another with Parkrose and Newberg forming the opposition. In between these victories, the team was soundly shellacked by a strong Milwaukie squad.

Jim Holmes brought home part of a bacon by placing second in the pole vault at the Hayward Relays.

MUNHINOTU

As they say on the radio—This is it—the product of our blood, sweat and tears, and we hope you like it.

It has not only been a lot of work but also a lot of fun to try to publish a year book of which you will be proud and one that will bring back memories in years to come.

We should like to express our appreciation to Mr. Saverude, advisor and budgetor; Logan Markam, photographers, and The Irwin-Hodson Co., lithographers, who made it possible for us to publish this book.

ARGUS

This, the second year of a printed Argus, started with only three of the former staff members upon which the present staff was built. They were: Editor, Jeanette Gilbertson; assistant editor, Sally Miller, and front page, June Misenhimer.

Helen Benda did a superb job along with June Misenhimer in writing the front page. Other news writers were Stanley Holm and Shirley Hays. A spark of humor was added to the editorial page by Phyllis Zenger's column, Gopher Guff. She took up the pen name of I. Tried and is praised for getting school atmosphere and controversial subjects down in black and white.

Senior feature writer, Elizabeth Clark, "Here and There" author, led a group of promising junior and sophomore writers in the feature page. Juniors were Sally Miller, Ray Nelson and Jay Brandon. Sophomores were Wanda Makinson, Elaine Rosenberg, Marylina Cowen, Jerry Dick and Marylin Hamblet.

The sports page was probably the best read section by the boys and was worthy of all praise received by it. Five writers worked hard on this page all year long. They were: Seniors, Walt Benner, Chuck Robinson; Juniors, Gordon Hillyard, Allen Coughenour and Tug Franks.

Along with the new staff members this year was also a new advisor. He was Mr. Donald Butzin, a graduate of the University of Oregon and a United States History teacher here.

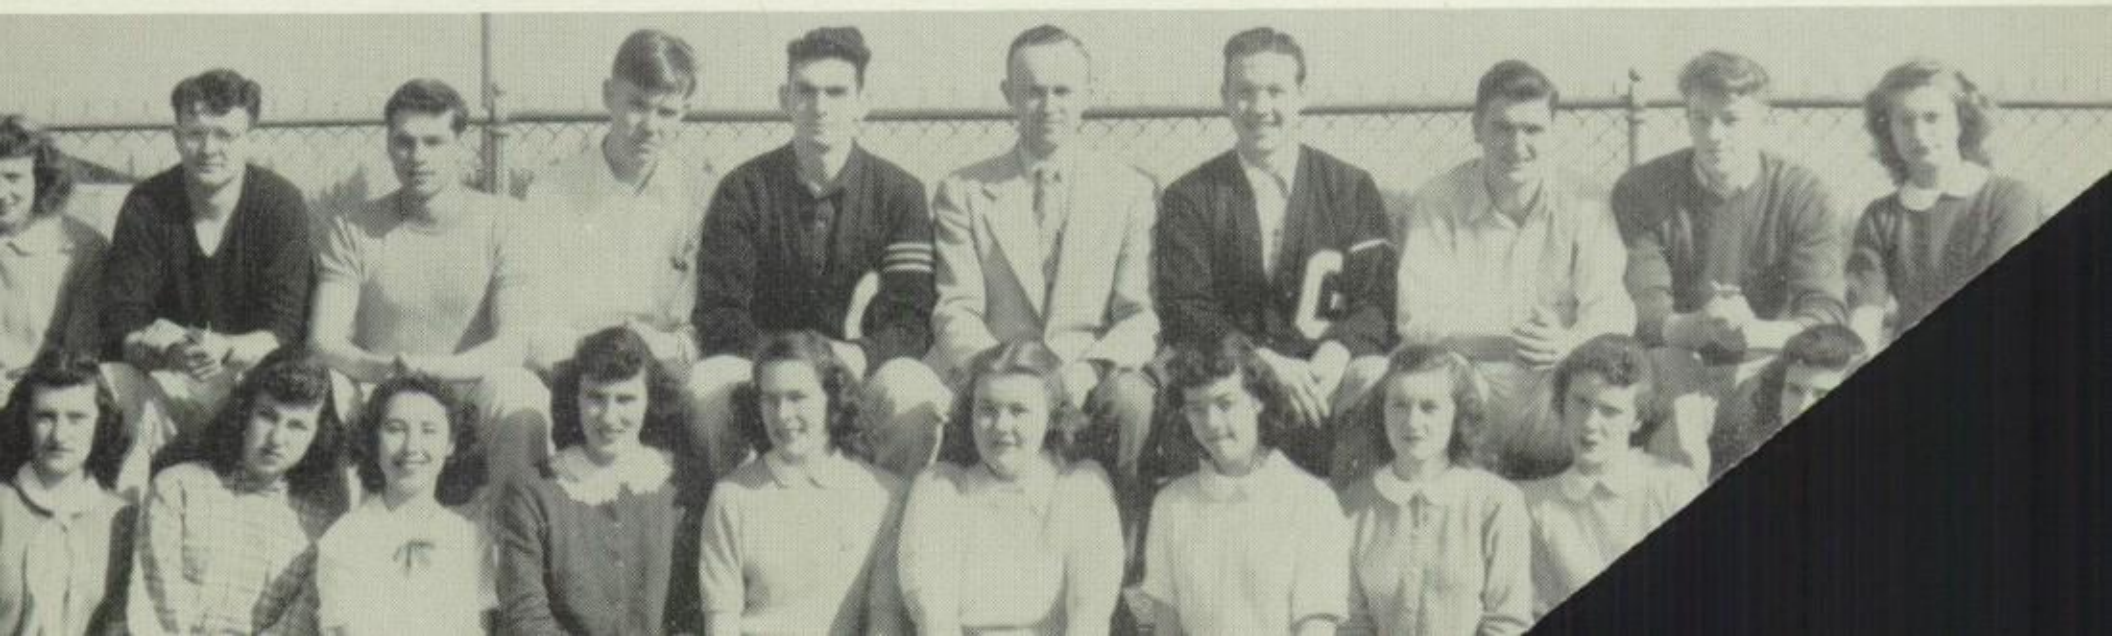

The job of typing material for the printers was capably handled by Lorene and Betty Stevens.

BAND

During the past year the Gresham band has been continually improving under the leadership of Mr. Robert Belieu, a skillful trombonist. The band started its year with only 21 members of the regular band returning; but with the promotion of students previously playing in the second band and with the enrollment of many capable newcomers, the band soon increased its membership to over 50. This total enrollment consisted of 17 freshmen, 16 sophomores, 11 juniors and 6 seniors. The seniors were Nellie Zook, David Frey, Janet Fleming, Beverly Lewis, Donna Freisheim and Richard Cason.

The band played for all home basketball and football games. Twice the band prepared football marching stunts, but the adverse weather prevented their being used. Always loyal rooters, a small pep band was at the District 13 Basketball Tournament this year, furnishing pep and spirit for our victorious Gopher team.

The most important event of the year was its own annual spring concert. The honored student conductor at this concert was Nellie Zook.

ORCHESTRA

The participation of many students who were not taking orchestra this year for the Junior and Senior play music was greatly appreciated by co-directors Mr. Belieu and Miss Babler. Although a minor organization as yet, improvement was shown this year in its two performances.

ADVANCED GIRLS' CHORUS

The Advanced Girls' Chorus, so-called because it is made up of Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors who have had at least one year of chorus work, celebrates its first year as such an ensemble. Several audiences in the vicinity of Gresham have been delighted by performances of this chorus during the past year. Their performance at the Kiwanis Club was so thoroughly enjoyed that the following morning many grade school principals called to engage them for future programs. They sang for the usual school activities and their year was climaxed by the "vaudeville show" given May 14. Probably one of the most memorable experiences of this chorus was the Christmas carolling in a horse-drawn wagon through Gresham, bringing joy in song, especially to shut-in people.

DOUBLE-FIVE

The Double-Five is a noteworthy "dash of girls", both when it appears by itself and when it forms a part of a larger musical group. It meets every Tuesday after school and has performed almost as many times as it has practiced.

Capturing the hearts of many audiences, these girls deserve a note of thanks for their ever-readiness to perform as well as the honor and publicity they have brought to the school.

FRESHMAN CHORUS

This chorus, composed of freshmen, performed at the Armistice assembly, the Christmas assembly and the spring vaudeville show. According to the director, the group has shown remarkable improvement since last September. In spite of an atmosphere of girls, Howard Butzer is always found at the piano.

BOYS' CHORUS

This is the largest group of singing boys the school has had in several years. They won first place in the Gymkhana musical department with "A Kiss in the Dark," with Don Pemberton as the soloist. Disguising their appearances, they contributed much to the Vaudeville Show with a minstrel act.

TUMBLING

The Tumbling team was unusually active this year, making trips to several of the grade schools to demonstrate stunts. They also tumbled for pep rallies, basketball games and were featured at the Osteopathic Benefit in Portland. Fourth year tumblers leaving this year are Betty Eastman, Delores Stookey and Greta Gulick. Third year girls are Joan DeYoung, Margaret Magers, Elizabeth Clark, Beverly Brennan, Lorraine Reed, June Holmes and Virginia Wion. The team is going to miss these girls, but the fifty girls on the second and third teams are working hard to make their T's and a place on the first team.

Elizabeth Clark headed the club, assisted by Virginia Benda, secretary, and Jean West, treasurer. The year was brought to a close with the annual picnic at Blue Lake.

HI-Y CLUB

To be of genuine service to their fellow men has been the number one objective of the Gresham Hi-Y Club this past year. The fellows held an assembly and really hustled to collect over $200 for European relief, the biggest donation ever given by the school. Also the club gave a sizeable donation to the world service organization of the Y.M.C.A. Another activity of the club was taking part in a model legislature at the statehouse in Salem.

To raise money for its activities the Hi-Y sold concessions and held a variety show.

A great deal of credit should be given to Mr. Shattuck and Mr. Bowerman, club co-advisors, who did a swell job, and Duane Sheets, who very successfully acted as president.

Other club officers for the 1947-48 year were: Roy Stigum, vice-president; John McDonald, secretary; Dave Noreen, treasurer, and Bob Dickover, sergeant-at-arms.

TRI-Y

The Tri-Y Club this year stressed service through gifts of clothing, food and books to persons in need.

Principal social activities included a Mothers' Tea and the sponsorship of the annual Print and Cord Dance. Tri-Y was able also to send two representatives to the Y-Teen Conference at Astoria.

Advisor Miss Virginia Lippman, President Janet Olsen and the cabinet officers capably directed the year's activities.

Tri-Y officers for the year were: Janet Olsen, president; Betty Weber, vice-president; Martha Luscher, secretary; Erma Gradin, treasurer; Harriet Vahey, sergeant-at-arms; Muriel Jones, Girls' League representative; Elise Luscher, attendance chairman; Yvonne Fisher, worship chairman; Madine Taylor, camp chairman; Janice Kesterson, social chairman; Joan Vincent, conference chairman; Virginia Benda, initiation chairman; Janet Fleming, program chairman; Audrey Schnepf, refreshment chairman; Jean West, clean-up; Edna Mulkey, publicity; Helen Benda, inter-club; Beverly Lewis, service; Leslie Gannon, world fellowship; Donna Lofgren, music.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

On April 2, in the high school auditorium, the Senior class presented "She Stoops to Conquer," directed by Mrs. Marion Lord. This 18th century play portrayed a humorous situation involving an English family. Bright 18th century costumes lent color to the production.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On November 21, the class of '49 presented a three-act comedy, "We Shook the Family Tree." The play was a huge success, due to the capable direction of Miss Machen, the talented cast and the good management back stage.

F. F. A.

Learning to do—Doing to learn—Earning to live—Living to serve, is the motto that 51 boys follow for three years in High School Agriculture. These Future Farmers own and maintain a tractor and equipment for use on their chapter farm and home farm projects. William Murphy placed third in the Sectional Better Farming Contest. Dale Lingle placed first and William Lowes placed second in the local Better Farming Contest. Ten members spoke on three radio broadcasts on KXL and KALE. Twelve members entered their projects in the Multnomah County Fair, three took their projects to the State Fair and seven members took their projects to the P.I.L.E.

The chapter sent livestock judging teams to each of the above-mentioned fairs, entered the Sectional Parliamentary and Public Speaking Contest. Members played intramural basketball, held a Christmas party for alumni, a swimming party, and a picnic for the F.H.A. Four of the members placed in the sectional shop skills held at Gresham.

HONOR STUDENTS

These are the "intellectuals" of Gresham Hi. To attain highest honors a student must have 90 or above in five subjects. To be on the honor roll four subjects with grades of 90 or above are required; honorable mention requires three subjects of 90 and one of 85. As a reward for his achievement, each student whose grades for the year average 90 in each subject is awarded a scholarship pin. If he maintains these grades for the second year he is given a guard to his pin; the third year a pearl is added, and the fourth year a ruby is attached to the pin.

MAJORETTES

The majorette group was smaller than usual this year but the four leaders and the group worked hard and were active at football games, basketball games and gave a fine drill at the Gymkhana. Besides the leaders, girls taking part were Barbara Toohey, Marcella Tarpenning, Marguerite Tarpenning, Geraldine Lennard, Lola Rasmussen, Alice Bair, Thelma Cox, Shirley Miller, Margaret Wilson and Velma Matheny.

GYMKHANA

"My Native Land" was the theme for the fourth annual Gymkhana given in March. All members of the girls' physical education classes took part. Each activity represented some region of the United States in this colorful salute to the United States. Featured were dances, rope-twirling and skating, with the tumbling as a finale. Preceding the show the Sophomore, Freshman, Junior and Senior basketball teams played for the girls' championship, which was won by the seniors.

One of its main activities was the taking of talent programs to Barnes and Veterans Hospitals in the fall and the last program at Barnes April 15. About thirty of our students made each trip. Other activities included the drive for gifts used in the Christmas Store and the National Fund drive in March. Representatives on the Multnomah County Council are Carol Olby and David Frey.
